Department of Public Service

Consumer Affairs & Public Service

Summary of Complaint Data About Potential Certificate of Public Good (CPG) Possible Violations

|             | CPG Complaints opened by CAPI in Q3 2023 |                           |                       |        |                            |
|-------------|--|---------------------------|-----------------------|--------|----------------------------|
| Energy Type | Project Town                      | Description               | Investigated by CAPI? | Status | Potential Violation |
|             |  |                           |                       |        |                            |
| Solar       | Lunenburg                                | Decommissioning           | No                    | Closed | Yes                        |
| Solar       | Brandon                                  | Site Maintenance          | No                    | Closed | Yes                        |
| Solar       | St. Albans                               | Site Maintenance          | No                    | Closed | Yes                        |
|             |  |                           |                       |        |                            |
|             |  |                           |                       |        |                            |
|             | CPG Com                                  | plaints closed by CAPI in |                       |        |                            |
| Energy Type | Project Town                      |                           | Investigated by CAPI? | Status | Potential Violation |
|             |  |                           |                       |        |                            |
| Solar       | Lunenburg                                | Decommissioning           | No                    | Closed | Yes                        |
| Solar       | Brandon                                  | Site Maintenance          | No                    | Closed | Yes                        |